

Group D: Request 3.39

[Answer from TEPCO]

3.39(1)

Stable iodine tablets were given to those who were under 40 years old and over 40 years old applicants. The medication per time of stable iodine tablets was 2 doses. The maximum medication of stable iodine tablets was 87 doses.

3.39(2)

Minor decreases in thyroid functions were observed in the 2 workers administered with large amounts of iodine.

Detail information is shown in the attached ppt file
(Request 3-39_StableIodine_TEPCO.ppt).

[Answer from fire department]

3.39(1)

244 firemen intaked stable iodine under direction of emergency medical specialists sent to the spot. 16 did not intake.

[Answer from police]

3.39(1)

Stable iodine tablets were given to 13 policemen who worked on site, but no detailed record about the administration is left. Total 1,104 tablets of stable iodine were distributed to 552 policemen who worked off site, but the policemen did not take the tablets.

[Answer from Self-defence Force]

3.39(1)

The medication of stable iodine was 100mg on the first day of the work on site. The medication per day was 50mg thereafter.